

The light green line on the top represents the number of views on the website (how many different pages on the website that was clicked on.)

The Dark green line on the bottom represents the number of visitors to the site.
April had a record high number of visitors of 339.

